

Publication And Writing Guidelines

Main Text Layout Information:

- A4 paper should not be used horizontally.
- Articles should be prepared in MS Word.
- No line spacing should be given between paragraphs. ¶ Paragraphs should be indented by 5 characters.
- Courier New font must be used throughout the entire article.
- The font should be Courier New, 10 point, with 1.0 line spacing.
- The main text should be in A4 format, with 3 cm margins at the top and bottom.
- The main text should be written in simple language and style, avoid long sentences, adhere to the spelling rules of the relevant language, use third-person singular and passive verbs, and avoid inverted sentences. ¶ For details such as title characters, spacing above and below titles, and figure and table captions, articles from previous issues should be used as examples and reviewed.
- The first page of the article should include the main and other language titles, abstract(s), and keywords.
- The first abstract should include the main language title, abstract, and keyword, followed by the other language title, abstract, and keyword.
- Abstract(s) should be a maximum of 140-150 words.
- Author names and contact addresses should not be included in the initial submission. Furthermore, any special notes or phrases that might suggest author names should be avoided. Articles with author names listed will not be considered.
- Author names, institutions, and contact information will be listed in order of priority during the final proofreading process, which will take place after the peer review and revision processes are complete.
- The INTRODUCTION section of the article must begin on the second page.

Main Text:

1. It should begin with the main heading INTRODUCTION and include general or basic information about the subject under study and the results of similar studies conducted previously (literature review).
2. Under the heading RESEARCH SIGNIFICANCE, the purpose, objective, importance, etc. of the study should be included. Additionally, three (Highlights) should be provided.
3. One of the following headings should be chosen: EXPERIMENTAL METHOD-PROCESS; ANALYTICAL STUDY, or SUBJECT. For example, under the heading EXPERIMENTAL STUDY, the experimental methods, equipment, and principles used in the study should be explained.
4. Under the heading FINDINGS AND DISCUSSIONS, the findings and outputs obtained as a result of the experimental methods of the study should be stated in writing, tables, or graphs.
5. In the CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATIONS section, the conclusion of the study and recommendations based on the study can be given.

Article Initial Presentation Format:

The technical presentation format of the article should conform to the principles given below. The names of the author(s) must be withheld in the article sent to the reviewers. Author names should be stated after the peer review process of the relevant article is completed. Acknowledgments should be as brief as possible, and the individuals and organizations that contributed to and supported the study should be mentioned.

After the conclusion and recommendations section, in order:

NOTICE (If any),

The following should be provided:

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS (if any),

COOPERATION (if any),

CONFLICT OF INTEREST,

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE, and

DECLARATION OF ETHICAL STANDARDS.

Lastly, a REFERENCES section should be written (listed from the first source used to the last source used).

APPENDIX (If any)

General Presentation Format:

ARTICLE TITLE

ABSTRACT

Maximum 140-150 Words)

Keywords: Word1, Word2, Word3, Word4, Word5 (5 Words)

SECOND LANGUAGE ARTICLE TITLE

(The abstract of the study can be written in a second language, one of which is German, French or Turkish. It is optional.)

Öz

Maximum 140-150 Kelimelik)

Anahtar Kelimeler: Kelime1, Kelime2, Kelime3, Kelime4, Kelime5 (5 Kelime)

- 1. INTRODUCTION)
- 2. RESEARCH SIGNIFICANCE
- 3. EXPERIMENTAL METHOD-PROCESS; ANALYTICAL STUDY VEYA SUBJECT
- 4. FINDINGS AND DISCUSSIONS)
- 5. CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATIONS)
- NOTICE (If any),
- ACKNOWLEDGMENT (If any),
- COOPERATION (If any),
- CONFLICT OF INTEREST
- FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE
- DECLARATION OF ETHICAL STANDARDS
- REFERENCES
- APPENDIX (If any)

Citation Information:

- All sources used in the article should be numbered in square brackets at the end of the sentence. Example: [1, 2, and 3]. The priority of the sources used in the text should be based on their order of appearance.
- Articles published in the journal may be quoted provided that the source is cited.
- It is recommended that the citation to the journal be in the format: author, article title, volume, issue, year. The date of the last access to the article should also be given in parentheses.
- It is recommended that the citation to the journal be in the format: author, article title, volume, issue, year. The date of the last access to the article should also be given in parentheses.
- In accordance with plagiarism and ethical rules, quotations should be given in parentheses immediately at the end of the sentence and supported/indicated with a reference number in the sources.
- If available, the DOI number of the sources given in the list of sources must be indicated.

If it's a source article:

Author's last name, first initial, other authors, (date), full title of the article, journal name, volume, issue, starting and ending pages.

Example:

Ekinci, C.E. and Yıldırım, S.T., (2004). The importance of waterproofing and moisture insulation in reinforced concrete foundations and basement walls. Journal of Eastern Anatolian Region Studies (DAUM), 2(3):11-17.

If it is a source book or report:

Author's last name, first initial, other authors, (date), title of the book, volume number (if any), editor (if any), place of publication, and name of the publishing house.

Example: Ekinci, C.E., (2003). Insulation techniques. İstanbul: Atlas Yayın Dağıtım.

If it's a source paper:

Author's last name, first initial, other authors, (date), title of the paper, name of the congress, conference or symposium, location, publication format.

Example:

Ekinci, C.E. and Eminel, M., (2004). The true face of inadequate insulation: The Elazığ and Yozgat example. Energy Audit-Insulation for a Sustainable Environment Congress and Exhibition. Istanbul, Proceedings Book, pp:331-338.

If it's a thesis:

Author's last name, first initial, (date), thesis title, degree, institution where it was submitted.

Example:

Yıldırım, S.T., (2002). Investigation of performance characteristics of fiber-reinforced concrete (Unpublished PhD Thesis). Elazığ: Fırat University, Institute of Science.

Suggested Citation Format:

Surname1, A1., Surname2, A2. and Surname3, A3., (2010). Title of the article. Education Sciences, 9(1): 1-10. DOI: ...

Information on Table, Figure, Image, and Graph Presentation:

- Images, graphs, equations, tables, figures, etc., to be included in articles should be carefully prepared on a computer.
- Graphs, images, equations, and figures in articles should not exceed 15x15 cm and should be provided in MS Word format. Courier New font should be used for captions. The font size in images can be reduced to 8 points.
- Tables, images, graphs, maps, and figures should be placed within the text and in the appropriate location, each given a separate number and title, and titles should be written in Turkish and English.
- Tables should be arranged in a classic table format (with rows and columns) and should not be in a horizontal orientation.
- For tables that do not fit on the page, the table content can be given in a smaller font size (e.g., 9 or 8 points).
- Tables and/or figures that do not fit in a vertical format should be reduced in size or redesigned as two different tables or figures.
- Equations should be numbered, and these numbers should be shown in parentheses at the end of each line.
- Only SI units should be used in the text.
- The authors are solely responsible for all opinions and legal liabilities expressed in the articles, figures, images, and graphs published in the journal. The journal accepts no responsibility.
- Tables should be in the classic table format (row and column) and centered, with the title immediately above the table. The title should be in two different languages.
- Figures, graphs, diagrams, and images should be centered and the caption within the figure should be "Courier New". Figure captions should be in at least two different languages and should be below the figure.

Table 3. General comparison table of concrete quality with RI and UPTV [13, 52, and 53]

Rebound Index (RI; R, fc, MPa)	Description	Ultrasonic Pulse Transit Velocity (UPTV; V; km/s)
≥40	Very Good	≥4.500
30-40	Good	3.500-4.500
20-30	Doubtful (Medium)	3.000-3.500
10-20	Poor (Bad)	3.000-2.000
≤10	Very Poor	≤2.000

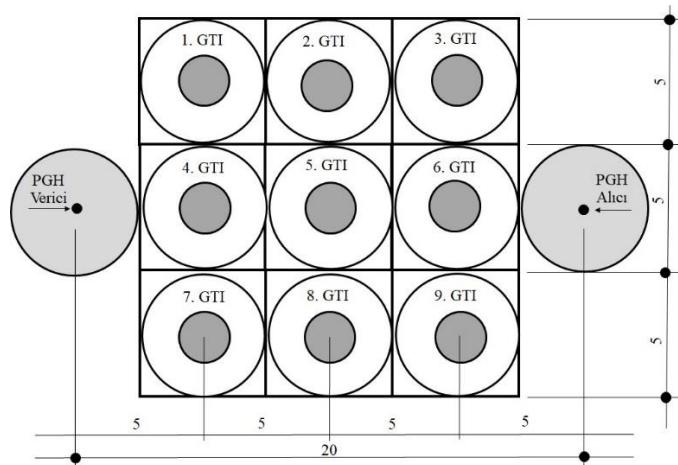

Figure 3. Measurement chart developed for semi-direct transmission SonReb test [49 and 50]

Photo 13. Concrete test hammer (Schmidt Hammer) and ultrasonic signal velocity tester [URL-7]